THE CHILDREN'S CENTER TO CELEBRATE NEW OQUIRRH SCHOOL LOCATION AT GROUNDBREAKING EVENT

WHO: The Children's Center, a 45-year-old private nonprofit dedicated to providing comprehensive mental healthcare to children and their families, will be having a special open house event in celebration of the renovation groundbreaking of its new location -- The Oquirrh School.

WHAT: This event will be the first time to see the new The Children's Center location. Remarks will be made by Mayor Ralph Becker at 5:15 p.m. Representatives of The Children's Center will be on hand to discuss plans and details for the new location. Light refreshments will be served.

WHERE: 350 South 400 East in downtown Salt Lake City.

WHEN: Tuesday, February 12th from 5-7 p.m.

WHY: Increasing demand for The Children Center's services prompted its board and staff to launch a $13 million capital campaign to fund the purchase and renovation of the Oquirrh School in 2006. The new location will more than double the capacity for clinical services and therapeutic preschool classrooms. The Children's Center plans to move from its current location in March 2009.
